Why expand globally?

Build and strengthen your brand/ business abroad

New revenue streams

An illustration of a woman with glasses and a white lab coat holding a glowing blue star. The entire illustration is enclosed in a blue oval border.

300 Mio. active Amazon Customers globally

Scale with Fulfilment by Amazon (FBA)

Mitigate seasonality through Geo-diversification

Made in Europe products are highly competitive

Why selling specifically on Amazon.com?

Selling partners based in Europe have increased their sales on Amazon.com to over 17% of their Amazon store turnover in Europe in the first year of launch. In the second year, this accelerated further to over 18% of European turnover.*

We were able to double our sales selling internationally.

- ✓ You don't have to set up a new company to sell to the USA
- ✓ Get access to millions of potential customers
- ✓ Protect yourself from fluctuations in European Amazon stores and benefit from North American holidays and peak periods
- ✓ Get access to stores in the USA, Canada, and Mexico

Analysis is based on sales partners who are registered in Europe, started selling on Amazon.com between 2021 and achieved at least 100,000 US dollars in sales in European Amazon stores in 2022.*

4. Q&A

What to consider when expanding

a) Product selection

b) Compliance

c) Tax

a) How to select the right products?

- Product Opportunity Explorer (US) provides insights based on search data
- Marketplace Product Guidance (US) provides insights based on category specific data.

b) What about product compliance?

- Compliance Management Dashboard: Provides insights about requirements, offering products in the US
- Commercial liability insurances: Mandatory insurance that helps minimize product related risks.

c) What about tax compliance?

We recommend to contact a tax or legal advisor who is familiar with Amazon Business as Amazon does not provide tax advice. We recommend that you address the following points during your appointment:

- ✓ Marketplace Facilitator Legislation
- ✓ Registering for taxes in the USA
- ✓ Payment of taxes at the right time in different countries
- ✓ The Amazon tax calculation service includes some special features that make handling taxes easy, fast and automated
